Admission and Procedures

1. All programmes are full-time.
2. A candidate can apply for a maximum of two programmes. However, a candidate cannot apply for the same programme at two campuses.
3. It is the responsibility of the candidates to ensure that they satisfy the eligibility requirements before applying for a programme. Candidates appearing for an examination, or awaiting results are allowed to write the entrance test. In case candidates awaiting their results are shortlisted, they are provisionally admitted to a programme and such provisional admission is subject to fulfilling the eligibility conditions and submission of all the required documents of the qualifying degree and other collateral documents within a stipulated period. In case the candidate fails to fulfil the requirements, the provisional admission of such candidate stands automatically cancelled.
4. The Hall Ticket issued by the University and the mere attendance in the entrance test do not entitle a candidate to any claim for admission to Ph.D programme/s in the University.
5. The University reserves the right to increase or decrease the number of seats for the Ph.D programmes without prior notice or intimation or without assigning any reason.
6. The University reserves the right to cancel the admission of any candidate at any stage, i.e., during the admission process or after the admission of the candidate, in case a candidate does not fulfil the essential eligibility condition [OR] upon ascertaining the dubious antecedents of indiscipline and misconduct of the candidate.
7. Please note that transfer from one Campus to another is not permissible.
8. As per UGC Regulations 2022,
 - i. Students who have secured 50% marks in the Entrance Tests are eligible to be called for the interview.
 - ii. A relaxation of 5% marks will be allowed in the Entrance Examination for the candidates belonging to SC / ST / OBC / Differently-abled category, Economically Weaker Section (EWS), and other categories of candidates as per the decision of the Commission from time to time.

Please note that the prescribed cut-off percentage of marks has to be obtained in the objective test, and the interview (where applicable), as well as in the aggregate score, in order to be eligible for being considered/ shortlisted for provisional admission to a programme. Admission is based on the order of merit.
9. To ensure equity and equality of opportunity for all aspiring candidates to secure admission in the University, those students who have once availed an opportunity of pursuing a Ph.D programme in the English stream or in Foreign Languages stream in the University at Hyderabad or at its Regional Campuses shall not be eligible for admission again if they wish to pursue the Ph.D programme in the University.

10. The University in its own interest reserves the right whether or not to consider such application/s for admission to the Ph.D programmes from persons imposed of the major penalty of “Dismissal” or “Removal” from service by an institution of the Central Government / State Government / Statutory Organization/s / Local Authority / Government Corporation owned by the Central Government/ State Government or any other Public Sector Undertaking/s (PSUs) in terms of the CCS (CCA) Rules or such other rules in force in those institutions.
11. Any candidate, who applied for any admission against this Notification infringing on the said rule in suppression of the fact/s is automatically disqualified and will not have any claim whatsoever in this regard.
12. Candidates who have a previous record of misconduct and/or indiscipline and whose antecedents testify their actions of bringing disrepute to an institution / college/ university through their open or surreptitious actions or clandestine support to such activities, such candidates are ineligible to be considered for admission to the Ph.D programme in the University.
13. It is solely the responsibility of the candidate to disclose that he/she was (a) dismissed, removed, terminated or debarred from Service (b) convicted by a criminal court (c) an FIR filed against the candidate in any police station or is pending for action. The University in its own interest reserves the right whether or not to consider such application for admission. If any candidate is found later by the University of suppressing the above fact/s, the candidate is deemed to have resorted to fraudulent practice, and will be subject to legal action, and in such case the cancellation of the admission is automatic.
14. The University shall verify the antecedents of the applicant, or the documents submitted by him/her at any time i.e., at the time of admission or anytime during the tenure of the programme. In case it is found that the documents/information submitted by the candidate are / is fake or if the candidate has criminal / clandestine antecedents / background and has suppressed the said information, his / her admission stands cancelled without prejudice to any other action initiated by the University forthwith.
15. In case of any disputes/suites or legal proceedings against the University, the jurisdiction shall be restricted to the Courts in Hyderabad, which is the headquarters of the University.

NOTE

The rule of reservation in respect of Economically Weaker Section (EWS) will be in accordance with OMs, circulars and guidelines issued by the Ministry of Education, Government of India, or UGC in this regard from time to time.

UGC NET / UGC JRF Qualified Candidates

Candidates who have qualified the UGC NET / UGC JRF in the subject concerned are exempted from appearing in the written component of the entrance test for admission to a Ph.D. programme offered by the English and Foreign Languages University. These candidates are required to upload the UGC NET Award Letter / UGC JRF Certificate at the time of application and produce the original certificate at the time of the interview. The interview is for 30 marks. The marks that these candidates score out of 30 at the interview will be calculated out of 100 and their rank is ordered accordingly along with the marks of other candidates.

The percentage of marks admissible to different categories as per the UGC Regulations 2022 (for award of M.Phil. / Ph.D. Degree) are applicable to these UGC NET / UGC JRF holders for all the doctoral programmes offered at the University. The candidates are required to obtain minimum cut-off marks at the interview for being considered / shortlisted for provisional admission to a Ph.D. programme. Further, the provisional admission to a doctoral programme will be based on order of merit.

Mere claiming of UGC NET / UGC JRF without uploading the document will not entitle the candidate for exemption from the written component of the Entrance Test. No further requests in this regard will be entertained.

Penal Measures

The University Authority may impose penal measures on any student found guilty of any of the acts of indiscipline or misconduct mentioned above.

Anti-Ragging Committee: Any form of ragging within the premises of the English and Foreign Languages University will be viewed seriously and dealt with swiftly and severely by the Administration. Anti-ragging squads and an Anti-Ragging Committee will be empowered to take suo moto action upon receiving a complaint. As per the direction of the Supreme Court of India, if any incident of ragging comes to the notice of the authorities, the student concerned shall be asked to explain their action and if his / her explanation is not found to be satisfactory, the authorities will expel him / her from the University.

Anti-Sexual Harassment and Redressal Mechanism: The English and Foreign Languages University has evolved a policy against sexual harassment to create for women students on its Campuses a gender-just and secure environment (vide Ordinance No. 30, entitled Gender Sensitization Prevention and Redressal of Sexual Harassment of the English and Foreign Languages University). Every Campus of the English and Foreign Languages University has a Complaints Committee, with representatives from all sections of the University, to take care of the complaints of women students in this regard, with the names, addresses and phone numbers of the members displayed in all prominent places on the Campus. The complaints will be kept confidential and the Committee is empowered to recommend severe action(s) against the perpetrators. The Committee also takes upon itself the task of organizing various gender sensitization programmes. There is an Appellate Committee to consider problems when the decisions of the Complaints Committee are not found satisfactory.

Grievance Redressal Mechanism for all students: All grievances within the University will be resolved through discussions and negotiations and through a Grievance-Redressal mechanism. The following are some of them:

- Grievances with regard to the Hostels may be referred to the Provost / Warden concerned.
- Individual grievances may be referred to teachers in the department who will be appointed as staff advisers.
- Group grievances may be resolved within the department to the extent possible.
- Miscellaneous grievances with regard to Library / Finance / Sports will be resolved by the Committees concerned.
- Academic grievances of students: Students aggrieved on the grade awarded in a course may apply in a prescribed form along with a fee of Rs. 100/- for each course to the Head of the Department giving reasons for feeling aggrieved within one month of the notification of the results. A committee will examine the case and the grade awarded as a result of the review will be final.

All grievances, except academic grievances, should be submitted to the appropriate body within reasonable time but not more than two weeks after the event at issue.

Hostel Accommodation

The English and Foreign Languages University is not a fully residential university and does not guarantee accommodation to every student. The University has five Hostels in the Hyderabad Campus: three meant for Indian students, and two exclusively for international students. The University has Hostels in its Regional Campuses in Shillong and Lucknow also. Subject to availability, Hostel rooms are allotted, on a sharing basis, to students from outside the city who are pursuing full-time courses at the University. Students provided with such accommodation shall abide by the rules and regulations of the Hostel.

Students are required to vacate their rooms during the winter vacation and the summer vacation. They may be asked to vacate the rooms as and when repairs and maintenance works need to be taken up.
