 - e) The candidate has presented at least two papers, based on his/her Ph.D. work in conferences/seminars sponsored/funded/supported by the UGC/ ICSSR/CSIR or any similar agency.
7. The time taken by candidates to acquire an M.Phil.and/or a Ph.D. degree shall not be treated as teaching/research experience to be claimed for appointment to the teaching positions. Further, the period of active service spent on pursuing the research degree simultaneously with teaching assignments, without taking any kind of leave, shall be counted as teaching experience for the purpose of direct recruitment/promotion.
8. A grade which is regarded as equivalent to 55% marks, wherever the grading system is followed by a recognized university, shall also be considered acceptable. It will be the responsibility of the candidate to provide equivalence certificate for grade achieved (in terms of percentage range) issued by the University awarding the degree.
9. The candidates selected shall be appointed under a written contract as per Ordinance 32 of the University (Form of agreement of service for The English and Foreign Languages University Teachers).
10. The appointment of candidates on regular basis shall be governed by the New Pension Scheme (NPS).
11. All correspondence from the University, including the call letter for interview, if any, shall be sent only to the email address provided by the applicant.
12. Only matriculation/SSC/Class X certificate issued by the education board concerned will be considered as a proof of the date of birth. No other document will be accepted for verification of the date of birth.
13. The University reserves the right to change the number of posts, or may prefer not to fill any of the posts mentioned in the advertisement without assigning any reason thereof. Any consequential vacancies arising at the time of interview may also be filled from the available shortlisted candidates.
14. Candidates applying for more than one post/department must apply separately (by submitting all the relevant documents separately) and paying fees separately.

15. Applicants should possess the prescribed qualifications and experience as on the last date of application, as prescribed by the University from time to time, for the respective posts.
16. The University shall verify the antecedents of the applicant, or the documents submitted by him/her at any time i.e., at the time of appointment or anytime during the tenure of service. In case, it is found that the documents/information submitted by the candidate are/is fake or if the candidate has criminal/clandestine antecedents/background and has suppressed the said information, his/her services shall be terminated without prejudice to any other action initiated by the University forthwith.
17. Applicants serving in Government/Public Sector Undertakings (including Boards/Autonomous Bodies) are required to submit a 'No Objection Certificate' (NOC) from the employer at the time of interview. The NOC should also indicate the vigilance clearance from the parent department.
18. Shortlisted candidates called for interview should report with all the testimonials/certificates in original along with a valid photo ID (Aadhar Card/PAN Card/Passport/Driving License). A set of self-attested photocopies of certificates/testimonials pertaining to the qualifications, experience, and category as applicable, indicated in the application form, duly certified by the applicant should be submitted at the time of interview.
19. Canvassing in any form will be treated as disqualification.
20. Incomplete application without relevant supporting enclosures (self-attested copies of degree/certificates/marks sheets/experience certificate, etc.) will be summarily rejected. Consequent upon adoption of self-certification provisions as required by the Government of India, the University shall process the applications entirely on the basis of information/documents submitted by the candidates. In case the information/documents are found to be false/incorrect by way of omission or commission, the responsibility and liability shall lie solely with the candidate.
21. Information uploaded on the University website will not be provided to the candidate under the RTI Act, 2005. The uploaded information on the University website will be available for a specific period only. Therefore, candidates are advised to download the information and keep it for future reference. In the course of the recruitments or in the middle of the process neither any application under the Right to Information Act, 2005 shall be entertained nor any information will be provided. Factual information under the RTI Act, 2005, will be provided only after declaration of the final result and completion of the recruitment process for this notification. Reply to inferential (speculative) question(s) shall not be provided. No interim queries regarding screening/ interview/ selection will be entertained.
22. In case of any inadvertent errors in the process of selection, which may be detected at any stage even after the issue of appointment order, the University reserves the right to modify/withdraw/ cancel any communication made to the candidates.
23. Any corrigendum, cancellation, or addendum to this advertisement will be notified only on the University website www.efluniversity.ac.in and will not be published in any newspaper. Therefore, the candidates are advised to access the University website regularly.
24. Publications which are under submission or submitted to referees will not be considered towards calculation of points under publication criteria. Further, all the items for which points are claimed should be strictly in accordance with the UGC Guidelines, 2018.
25. The University reserves the right to
 - withdraw either partly or wholly any of the post(s) advertised at any time without assigning any reason thereof, and
 - treat the number of posts advertised as tentative. The University shall have the right to increase/decrease the number of posts at the time of selection and make appointments accordingly.
26. The list of selected/waitlisted candidates will be valid for one year from the date of approval of the Competent Authority and the University shall make appointments to the consequential/new vacancies.

27. The process of selection to a post will be complete if a candidate joins and then leaves the post. Operation of wait list shall not be valid in such case as the process of recruitment will be completed.
28. New Pension Scheme in accordance with the O.M.No. 1(13) EV/2001, dated 15.03.2004, Government of India, Ministry of Finance, Department of Expenditure, will be applicable with subsequent amendments.
29. The character of a person for direct recruitment to the service must be such as to render him/her suitable in all respects for appointment to the service. Persons dismissed by the Union Government or by a State Government or by a Local Authority or a Government Corporation owned or controlled by the Central Government or State Government will be deemed to be ineligible for appointment.
30. Equivalence certificates for degrees awarded from recognized foreign universities as per AIU should be submitted in relevant cases by the candidate along with the application form.
31. Mere fulfilment of the qualifications or the eligibility criteria do not entitle an applicant to be necessarily considered or called for interview. The prescribed qualifications and experience are minimum and the mere fact that a candidate possesses the same will not entitle him/ her for being called for interview. The University will have the right to restrict the number of candidates to be called for interview to a reasonable number as per University Regulations on the basis of qualifications and experience higher than the minimum prescribed or by any other conditions that it may deem fit later.
32. Candidates (belonging to the SC/ST/PWD categories) who are unemployed, not stationed in Hyderabad, and are called for interview will be paid a single second-class railway fare by the shortest route towards expenses incurred towards journey on production of tickets/proof as per the Government of India rules.
33. Academic/Research Score will be calculated as per the UGC Regulations, 2018 (Table 2) for Professors and Associate Professors. The Academic/Research Score calculated in the form is only indicative of the applicants' eligibility and it shall be confirmed after the scrutiny by the appropriate Committee constituted by the University, as per the UGC Regulations, 2018.
34. In case of any disputes/suites or legal proceedings against the University, the jurisdiction shall be restricted to the Courts in Hyderabad, which is the headquarters of the University.
35. The candidate is required to send all the copies of relevant publications (all pages) along with the application form for consideration of their candidature. Proof of the status of the peer reviewed journal, its impact factor, and authorship claim should be provided with valid documents. In the absence of these, marks will not be allotted as per the claims made. Therefore, the candidate is advised to ensure that all the relevant documents are enclosed with the application in his/her own interest.
36. Additional information, if any, such as double/additional degree, details of change of name and so on, can be submitted along with application.
37. The University reserves the right not to fill up any vacancy advertised without assigning any reason/s.
38. The University reserves the right to issue any corrigendum or addendum or any updates to this notification which will be published on the University website only. All the applicants are advised to visit the University website from time to time.
39. The University reserves the right to
 - withdraw either partly or wholly any of the post(s) advertised at any time without assigning any reason thereof, and
 - treat the number of posts advertised as tentative. The University shall have the right to increase/decrease the number of posts at the time of selection and make appointments accordingly.
40. The University reserves the right to consider the names of suitable persons who may not have applied, but recommended by the subject experts in their respective fields.
41. The University may offer lower post to a candidate who may have applied for a higher post in case suitable candidates are not available for the advertised post/s.
