A Note on Admission to Courses and Programmes

1. All courses and programmes are full-time.
2. A candidate can apply for a maximum of two courses/programmes.
3. It is the responsibility of the candidates to ensure that they satisfy the eligibility requirements before applying for a course/programme. As candidates who are still awaiting the results of their final year/semester examinations are also eligible, the University will not be able to verify the eligibility of the candidates before they appear in the entrance tests. If candidates are appearing for an examination or are awaiting results, they are allowed to write the entrance test. In case they are short-listed, provisional admission to the course/programme is subject to their meeting the eligibility criteria and submission of relevant documents.
4. Issue of Hall Ticket and appearance at the entrance test do not automatically make the candidate eligible for admission to the University. The University reserves the right to cancel the admission of a candidate at any stage of the admission process or after admission if he/she does not meet the eligibility requirements.
5. Please note that transfer from one Campus to another is not permitted.
6. The cut-off marks for the entrance tests for admission to all Undergraduate, Postgraduate, Teacher Education courses (B.Ed., PGDTE, and PGDTA), as well as the Postgraduate Diploma in Translation course for candidates belonging to the following categories is as follows:
 - Unreserved category : 50%
 - OBC category : 45%
 - SC/ST/PWD category: 30%
7. The cut-off marks for the entrance tests for admission to all doctoral programmes, as per UGC (1stAmendment) Regulations, 2018, are as follows:
 - Unreserved/OBC (creamy layer) category :50%
 - OBC (non-creamy layer)/ SC/ST/Differently-abled category :45%

Please note that the cut-off marks have to be obtained in the objective test, and the interview (where applicable), as well as in the aggregate score in order to be eligible for being considered/short listed for provisional admission to a programme. Admission is based on order of merit.

NOTE

The rule of reservation in respect of Economically Weaker Sections (EWSs) will be in accordance with circulars and guidelines issued by GOI, MHRD, and UGC in this regard from time to time.

8. Note for UGC JRF holders

Candidates who have qualified the UGC NET (including JRF) in the subject concerned are exempted from appearing in the written component of the entrance test for admission to a Ph.D. programme offered by the EFL University. These candidates are required to upload the UGC –NET Award Letter/JRF Certificate at the time of application and produce the original certificate at the time of the interview. The interview is for 30 marks. The marks that these candidates score out of 30 at the interview will be calculated out of 100 and their rank is ordered accordingly along with the marks of other candidates.

The percentages of marks admissible to different categories as per the UGC Regulations 2016 and UGC (1st Amendment) Regulations, 2018 (for award of M.Phil./Ph.D. Degree) are applicable to these UGC JRF holder's candidates for all the doctoral programmes offered at the University. The candidates are required to obtain minimum cut-off marks at the interview for being considered/shortlisted for provisional admission to a Ph.D. programme. Further, the Provisional admission to a doctoral programme will be based on order of merit.

Mere claiming of UGC-NET/JRF without uploading the document will not entitle the candidate for exemption from the written component of the Entrance Test. No further requests in this regard will be entertained.

DISCLAIMER

The University reserves the right to not offer any of the courses /programmes listed in the Prospectus.

The University reserves the right to not admit any applicant if he/she is found to have indulged in any act that is unbecoming of an applicant, including vandalism, staging dharna, aggression, canvassing defamation, instigation, unruly behavior or any such act that is construed to be unlawful, illegal and unbecoming and that harms the interest, name and reputation of a member of the University or of the University as an academic body.

A Note on Admission to Ph.D. Programmes

Each School* at Hyderabad is considered as one unit for the purpose of implementation of reservation of seats for Ph.D. programmes. For Ph.D. programmes at Shillong and Lucknow Campuses, each Campus is considered as one unit for the purpose of implementation of reservation of seats. The rule of reservation, including for the candidates who belong to Economically Weaker Sections (EWSs), will be in accordance with circulars and guidelines issued by GOI, UGC, and MHRD in this regard.

*For details of Schools, please see page no.3 of this document.

Note for UGC JRF holders

Candidates who have qualified the UGC NET (including JRF) in the subject concerned are exempted from appearing in the written component of the entrance test for admission to a Ph.D. programme offered by the EFL University. These candidates are required to upload the UGC –NET Award Letter/JRF Certificate at the time of application and produce the original certificate at the time of the interview. The interview is for 30 marks. The marks that these candidates score out of 30 at the interview will be calculated out of 100 and their rank is ordered accordingly along with the marks of other candidates.

The percentages of marks admissible to different categories as per the UGC Regulations 2016 and UGC (1st Amendment) Regulations, 2018 (for award of M.Phil./Ph.D. Degree) are applicable to these UGC JRF holders candidates for all the doctoral programmes offered at the University. The candidates are required to obtain minimum cut-off marks at the interview for being considered/shortlisted for provisional admission to a Ph.D. programme. Further, the Provisional admission to a doctoral programme will be based on order of merit.

Mere claiming of UGC-NET/JRF without uploading the document will not entitle the candidate for exemption from the written component of the Entrance Test. No further requests in this regard will be entertained.

Penal Measures

The Competent Authority may impose penal measures on any student found guilty of any of the acts of indiscipline or misconduct mentioned above.

Anti-Ragging Committee: Any form of ragging within the premises of the EFL University will be viewed seriously and dealt with swiftly and severely by the Administration. Anti-ragging squads and an Anti-Ragging Committee will be empowered to take suomoto action upon receiving a complaint. As per the direction of the Supreme Court of India, if any incident of ragging comes to the notice of the authorities, the student concerned shall be asked to explain their action and if his/her explanation is not found to be satisfactory, the authorities will expel him/her from the University.

Anti-Sexual Harassment and Redressal Mechanism: The EFL University has evolved a policy against sexual harassment to create for women students on its Campuses a gender-just and secure environment (vide Ordinance No. 30, entitled Gender Sensitization Prevention and Redressal of Sexual Harassment of the English and Foreign Languages University). Every Campus of the EFL University has a Complaints Committee, with representatives from all sections of the University, to take care of the complaints of women students in this regard, with the names, addresses and phone numbers of the members displayed in all prominent places on the Campus. The complaints will be kept confidential and the Committee is empowered to recommend severe action(s) against the perpetrators. The Committee also takes upon itself the task of organizing various gender sensitization programmes. There is an Appellate Committee to consider problems when the Complaints Committee's decisions are not found satisfactory.

Grievance Redressal Mechanism for all students: All grievances within the University will be resolved through discussions and negotiations and through a Grievance-Redressal mechanism. The following are some of them:

- Grievances with regard to the hostels may be referred to the Provost/Warden concerned.
- Individual grievances may be referred to teachers in each department who will be appointed staff advisers.
- Group grievances may be resolved within the department to the extent possible.
- Miscellaneous grievances with regard to Library/Finance/Sports will be resolved by the Committee concerned.

- Academic grievances of students: Students aggrieved on the grade awarded in a course may apply in a prescribed form along with a fee of Rs. 100/- for each course to the Head of the Department giving reasons for feeling aggrieved within one month of the notification of the results. A committee will examine the case and the grade awarded as a result of the review will be final.

All grievances, except academic grievances, should be submitted to the appropriate body within reasonable time but not more than two weeks after the event at issue.

Hostel Accommodation at Hyderabad

The EFL University is not a fully residential university and does not guarantee accommodation to every student. The University has five hostels: three meant for Indian students, and two exclusively for international students. Subject to availability, hostel rooms are allotted, on a sharing basis, to students from outside the city who are pursuing full-time courses at the University. Students provided with such accommodation shall abide by the rules and regulations of the Hostel.

Students are required to vacate their rooms during the winter vacation and the summer vacation. They may be asked to vacate the rooms as and when repairs and maintenance works need to be taken up.
