Penal Measures

The Competent Authority may impose penal measures on any student found guilty of any of the acts of indiscipline or misconduct mentioned above.

Anti-Ragging Committee: Any form of ragging within the premises of the EFL University will be viewed seriously and dealt with swiftly and severely by the Administration. The Anti-ragging squads and the Anti-Ragging Committee will be empowered to take suomoto action upon receiving complaint. As per the direction of the Supreme Court of India, if any incident of ragging comes to the notice of the authorities, the student concerned shall be asked to explain his/her action and if the explanation is not found to be satisfactory, he/she will be expelled from the University.

Anti-Sexual Harassment and Redressal Mechanism: The EFL University has evolved a policy against sexual harassment to create a gender-just and secure environment (vide Ordinance No. 30, entitled Gender Sensitization Prevention and Redressal of Sexual Harassment of the English and Foreign Languages University) for women students on its Campuses. Every Campus of the EFL University has a Complaints Committee, with representatives from all sections of the University, to take care of the complaints of women students in this regard, with the names, addresses and phone numbers of the members displayed in all prominent places on the Campus. The complaints will be kept confidential, and the Committee is empowered to recommend severe action(s) against the perpetrators.

The Committee also takes upon itself the task of organizing various gender sensitization programmes. There is an Appellate Committee to consider problems when the Complaints Committee's decisions are not found satisfactory.

Grievance Redressal Mechanism for all students: All grievances within the University will be resolved through discussions and negotiations, and through a Grievance-Redressal mechanism. The following are some of them:

- Grievances with regard to the Hostels may be referred to the Provost/Warden concerned.
- Individual grievances may be referred to teachers in the department who will be appointed as staff advisers.
- Group grievances may be resolved within the department to the extent possible.
- Miscellaneous grievances with regard to Library/Finance/Sports will be resolved by the Committees concerned.
- Academic grievances of students: Students aggrieved on the grade awarded in a course may apply in a prescribed form along with a fee of Rs. 100/- for each course to the Head of the Department within one month of the notification of the results. A committee will examine the case and the grade awarded as a result of their view will be final.

All grievances, except academic grievances, should be submitted to the appropriate body within reasonable time, i.e., not more than two weeks after the event at issue.

9. Hostel Accommodation at Hyderabad

The EFL University is not a fully residential university and does not guarantee accommodation to every student. The University has five hostels: three for Indian students, and two exclusively for international students. Subject to availability, hostel rooms are allotted, on a sharing basis, to students from outside the city who are pursuing full-time courses at the University. Students provided with such accommodation shall abide by the rules and regulations of the Hostel.

Students are required to vacate their rooms during the winter vacation and the summer vacation. They may also be required to vacate the rooms as and when the need arises for repairs and maintenance.
