I. General Instructions

1. The CUET score card will be considered for admissions to Postgraduate (PG) Programmes at the EFL University.
2. All programmes are full-time.
3. It is the responsibility of the candidates to ensure that they satisfy the eligibility requirements before applying for admission to a programme. As candidates who are still awaiting the results of their final year/semester examinations are also eligible, the University will not be able to verify the eligibility of the candidates before/when they appear for the entrance test.
4. After the entrance test, in case the candidates awaiting their results are short-listed, they will be provisionally admitted to the programme, subject to their meeting the eligibility criteria and the submission of relevant documents.
5. Issue of Hall Ticket and appearance at the entrance test do not automatically make the candidate eligible for admission to the University. The University reserves the right to cancel the admission of a candidate at any stage of the admission process or after admission if he/she does not meet the eligibility requirements.
6. In terms of the ordinances of the EFL University Act, 2016, the cut-off marks for the entrance tests for admission to all PG Programmes for candidates belonging to the following categories are as follows:

Unreserved/EWS/ OBC creamy layer/ KM/ WDP	50%
OBC non-creamy layer	45%
SC/ST/ PwBD	30%

* OBC – Other Backward Classes; KM – Kashmiri Migrants; WDP – Wards of Defence Personnel
SC – Scheduled Castes; ST – Scheduled Tribes; PwBD – Persons with Benchmark Disabilities

7. Eligibility Criteria: Candidates must make sure that they fulfil the eligibility criteria for admissions to PG Programmes at the EFL University. Candidates are required to read the Prospectus carefully, understand the eligibility criteria and make sure that they meet the eligibility criteria before registering for PG Programmes.
PG Prospectus: https://www.efluniversity.ac.in/uploads/exams/1748336583_cf682ef7912a14f7cb7d.pdf
8. The candidate/s who applied for a specific programme and a specific campus will not have any claim whatsoever to change the campus/ programme during the admission process for his/ her convenience.

9. If a candidate has applied for TWO programmes and is provisionally selected in both the programmes, such candidate is restricted to choose any one programme. Once the provisional admission is offered, he/ she is not entitled to change the programme under any circumstances whatsoever.

10. If two or more candidates secure the same CUET score, the procedure mentioned below may be followed:

- i. The candidate with higher marks in degree or equivalent examination may be allotted the seat in case of seeking admission to a PG programme.
- ii. The candidate with higher marks in Intermediate/ +2/ class 12 or equivalent examination may be allotted the seat in case of seeking admission to a UG programme.
- iii. If the Intermediate/+2/class 12 or equivalent marks are not available for all the candidates or if the marks are the same for all the candidates, then SSC/ class X marks will be considered and the candidate who has higher marks in class X will be allotted the seat.
- iv. In the case of candidates with the same marks in the SSC/ class X examinations, the age of the candidates will be taken into account. The older candidate will be allotted the seat.

11. Reservation Policy: Reservation of seats for eligible candidates shall be in accordance with the provisions of the Central Educational Institutions (Reservation in Admission) Act 2006 and Circulars of the Government of India issued and amended in this regard from time to time. Besides, the University shall also follow reservation in admission to all programmes of studies in accordance with the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (RPwD) Act, 2016.

i. The rule of reservation for SC/ ST/ OBC (NCL)/ EWS/ PwBD/ WDP for admission to the programmes offered by the University is in terms of the present GoI norms, which are as follows:

Scheduled Castes: 15%

Scheduled Tribes: 7.5%

Other Backward Classes (Non-Creamy Layer): 27%

Economically Weaker Sections (EWS): 10%

Supernumerary Seats (PwBD/ WDP/ KM): 5% on the total No. of seats allotted to all programmes of all the campuses.

ii. Candidates belonging to Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes will be given relaxation to the extent of 5% in the aggregate of marks obtained in the qualifying examination.

iii. PwBD candidates: Supernumerary seats to an extent of 5% of the total intake are reserved for candidates with a minimum disability of 40%. Along with the application form, an eligible candidate under PwBD should submit attested copies of the certificate of disability from a Civil Surgeon of a government hospital, indicating the extent of the disability and also the extent to which the disability may affect the pursuance of the course of study for which admission is sought to.

Note: At any stage, if any candidate is found falling short of meeting the eligibility conditions, such candidate will be automatically disqualified resulting in the cancellation of the admission. In case a candidate, who is provisionally admitted to a programme, is found to have furnished false details/credentials or fallen short of meeting any of the prescribed eligibility conditions, his/ her provisional admission will be cancelled with immediate effect.

* The rule of reservation in respect of Economically Weaker Section (EWS) will be in accordance with circulars and guidelines issued by the Ministry of Education, Government of India, or UGC in this regard from time to time.

12. Persons dismissed by the Union Government or by a State Government or by a Local Authority or a Government Corporation owned or controlled by the Central Government or State Government or any other Public Sector Undertakings (PSUs) will be deemed to be ineligible for admission into PG programme of the University.
13. Any candidate, who applied for any admission against this Notification infringing on the said rule in suppression of the fact/s is automatically disqualified and will not have any claim whatsoever in this regard.
14. In case of a candidate from Central or State Government or Statutory Organizations or any other PSUs, who has been imposed of the major penalty of “Removal from Service”, as per CCS CCA Rules, the University in its own interest reserves the right whether or not to consider such application for admission.
15. It is solely the responsibility of the candidate to disclose that he/she is (a) dismissed, removed, terminated or debarred from Service (b) convicted by a criminal court (c) an FIR filed against the candidate in any police station or is pending for action. The University in its own interest reserves the right whether or not to consider such application for admission. If any candidate is verified / found later by the University of suppressing the above fact/s, the candidate is deemed to have resorted to fraudulent practice, and will be subject to legal action, and in such case the cancellation of the admission is automatic.
16. To ensure equity and equality of opportunity for all aspiring candidates to secure admission in the University, competent authority made a decision as follows:
 - a) Those students who have once availed of an opportunity of pursuing a UG, PG or PhD course/ programme in the English stream or in a foreign language stream / or any other programme shall not be eligible for admission again if they repeat pursuing the same level course / programme in the University.
 - b) Those students who already availed of an opportunity of pursuing a course/ programme of the higher level earlier, but are now applying for a lower level course / programme in the University shall not be eligible for admission.

- c) Those students who are employed full-time shall not be eligible for admission into a programme, unless they produce an evidence of duty leave for the duration of the course from their employer.*
 - d) As there is a stiff competition for the hostel accommodation, the same will not be made available to any of the students falling in the any of the above categories.*
- 17. The University shall verify the antecedents of the applicant, or the documents submitted by him/her at any time i.e., at the time of admission or anytime during the tenure of the programme. In case it is found that the documents / information submitted by the candidate are/is fake or if the candidate has criminal/clandestine antecedents/background he/she will not be admitted into any course, and if already admitted, his/her admission will be cancelled without prejudice to any other action initiated by the University.
- 18. In case of any disputes/ suites or legal proceedings against the University, the jurisdiction shall be restricted to the Courts in Hyderabad, which is the headquarters of the University.
- 19. Selection Process:
- i. A merit list is prepared based on the scores obtained in the CUET PG-2025 examination for each programme.
 - ii. Candidates are shortlisted based on the merit and the rules of reservation.
 - iii. The University reserves the right to fix the ratio for shortlisting of candidates for respective programmes which may vary from 1:1 to 1:10 depending on the availability of the number of candidates registered for each programme, with a view to filling the seats with eligible candidates.
 - iv. Immediately upon their arrival at the counseling center at the university, the candidates shall sign the attendance sheet, which alone will entitle them to be considered for admissions to the PG programmes.
 - v. Candidates shall submit the score cards and other relevant documents at the specific counter to the staff concerned. It is the responsibility of the candidate to submit the relevant document/s at the specific counter/s.
 - vi. Candidates are to note that the process of taking attendance of the candidates at the counseling center for admission to PG programmes will be completed before 12 noon.
 - vii. Candidates who are absent or fail to sign the attendance sheet for counseling before 12 noon will not be considered for the final merit list, in the respective PG programmes and shall not have any claim whatsoever for admission in this regard.

- viii. Further, candidates who are absent or fail to sign the attendance sheet will not be considered for admission in case vacancies arise due to withdrawal of provisionally admitted candidates.

Note: The shortlisting of candidates for counselling does not guarantee admission to any programme. The admissions to various PG programmes are purely based on the merit. On verification of the original documents and the eligibility requirements of the programme, a provisional admission will be given.

20. The University reserves the right to continue with the admission cycle as shown in the selection process mentioned above till all the seats are filled with the available registered candidates who are found eligible.
21. The University reserves the right in its own interest not to admit a candidate without assigning any reason whatsoever.
22. The provisional admission given to candidates stands cancelled in case they are found to have questionable antecedents, have been involved in a mob or riotous activity or faced disciplinary proceedings for misconduct.
23. Checklist of Documents: The provisionally shortlisted candidates should bring their original certificates for verification. They should also bring one set of photocopies of the relevant certificates as mentioned in section II.
24. Please note that the admission will continue to be provisional until all the certificates are submitted, verified with the original certificates, and found to be correct. At any stage, if it is found that the candidates do not meet the eligibility requirements, their provisional admission will be cancelled.
25. Candidates may be allowed to submit additional certificates, such as TC or MC, besides the ones from their qualifying examinations, on or before October 30, 2025, after which their admissions will be automatically cancelled without further notice.
26. The provisionally admitted candidates need to pay the Semester I fees. They are required to pay the prescribed Fees online through the payment gateway using SAMARTH portal.
